

Mission - '52

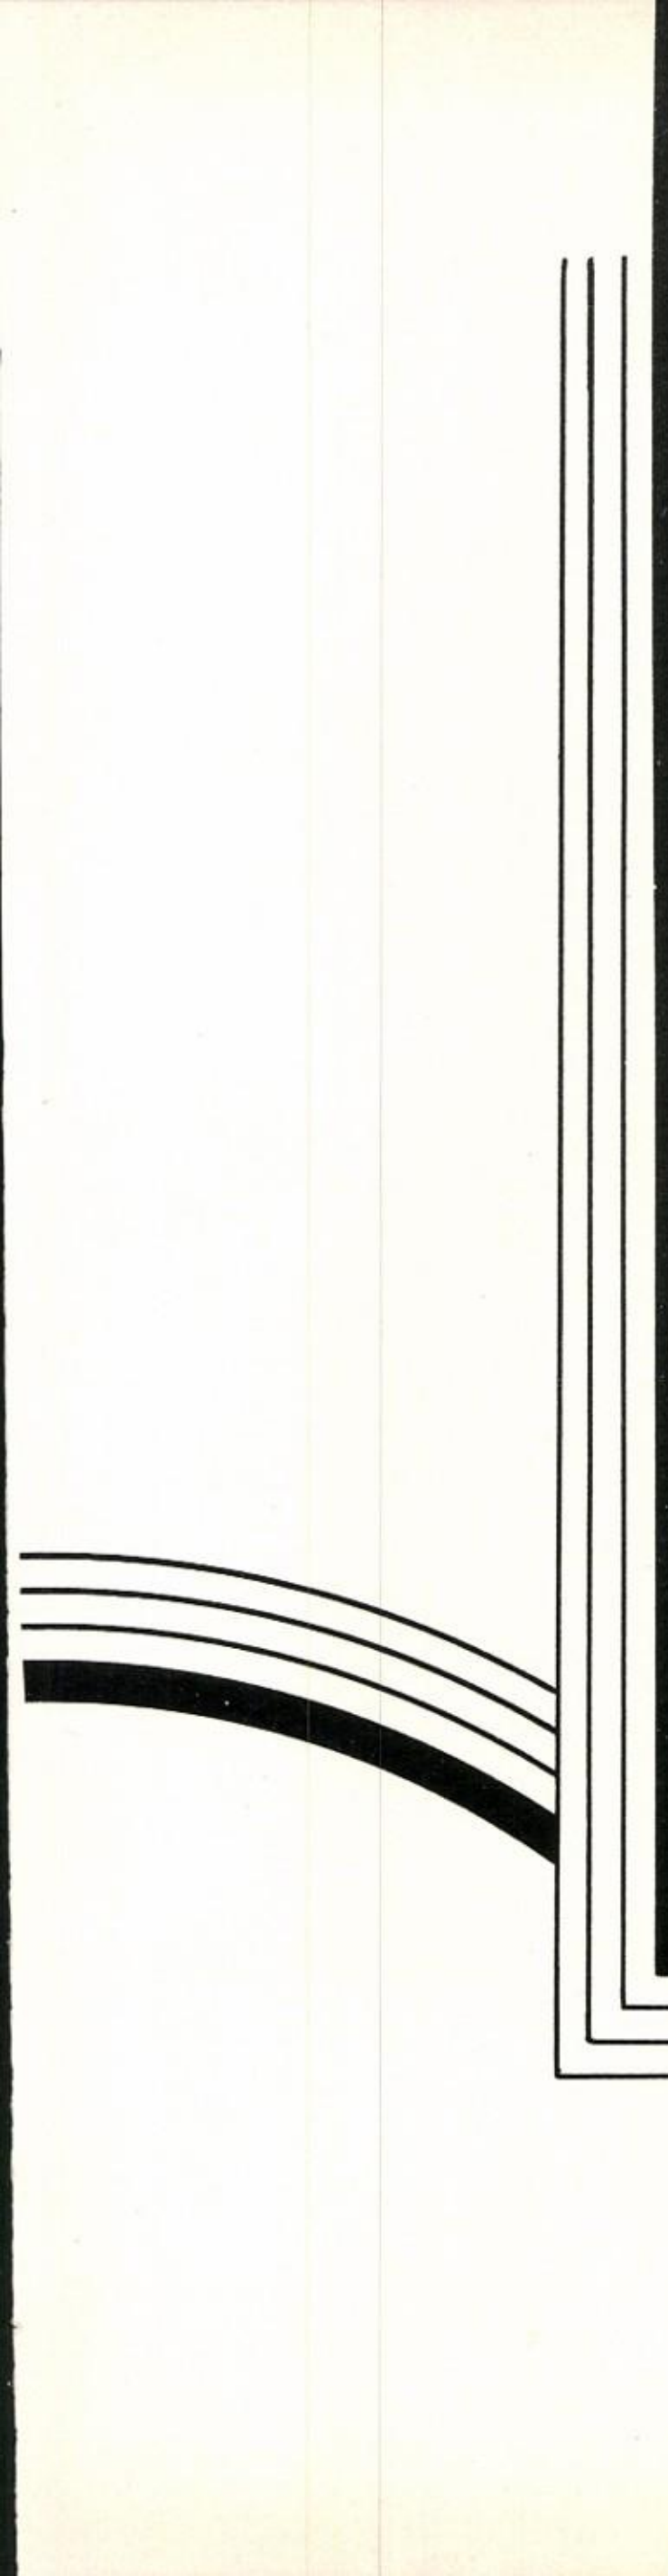

A black and white photograph of a tree with blossoms, serving as a background for the text. The tree's dark, gnarled branches are silhouetted against a lighter, out-of-focus background of blossoms. The blossoms appear as soft, white, circular shapes, creating a bokeh effect. The overall tone is serene and evocative.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet Freedom's song

Oh Ripon High so true
With its red and its white all in view
We pledge our faith anew
As we sing all our praises for you.

D E D I C A T I O N

It is with deep appreciation that we the graduating class of 1952 wish to dedicate this Mission, a portrayal of our years spent at Ripon High School, to our adviser, Mr. Azevedo.

Through his careful advice and patient counseling we have been skilfully guided toward our respective goals.

So, to Mr. Azevedo, each one of us would say, "Thank You."

The Mission Staff

Second row: Bourquin, (Adviser), Hensley, Poynor, Silva, Vander Laan, Marsman.

We, the Mission Staff of 1952, have chosen Music as the theme of our annual because we feel that music plays a great part in our everyday school life.

An expression of sincere appreciation goes to Mr. Bourquin who so willingly gave of his time and talent toward making this annual successful.

Special thanks go to Croce Migliore as business manager and to Bob Silva, her assistant, Ann Phillips as secretary, Larry Poynor as photographer, and the class representatives, Jim at Owens, Susan Vander Laan, Marilyn Borr, and Angie Ynzunza, Jim Hensley as Art Editor and Joan Vieira as Assistant Editor.

We hope that you will enjoy this Mission as much as we have enjoyed editing it for you.

Sincerely,

Ruth Borr and Alberta Marsman, Co-editors

M E M O R I A L

"Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer."

— Psalm 19:14

Ripon High School has a vacancy on its faculty now due to the passing of Mr. Robert Arganbright, the much respected director of the Science Department. As we review his life and his contributions to Ripon High, we might well use this poem to describe some of his principles.

*It is not what you know is right
That makes you true;
'Tis what you live of what you know—
And do.*

*It is not life that makes us glad,
It is not death that makes us sad;
'Tis what we make of life and death
And in between, for every breath
We've had.*

One of the greatest qualities of Mr. Arganbright, as this poem suggests, was that during his life he was rarely idle. For every minute there was some school or community project planned, or some goal to be accomplished.

Since Mr. Arganbright, known to most students as "Argie," was an extremely hard-working man, he demanded excellence and hard work from his students. He knew that what book knowledge we had was of no value if we could not apply it to practical situations. In Biology, Chemistry, and Physics the students learned practical application through numerous lab projects. In journalism the students not only learned the various styles of writing, but also practiced them in their production of the Warwhoop. "You get out of a thing just what effort you put into it." Judging from the excellence of the paper and his various classes, we can see that Mr. Arganbright himself put forth much effort and also inspired extra interest on the part of the students.

Argie and his camera were a favorite sight wherever there was excitement. He contributed many of the pictures and snapshots to our Mission. He also developed many of his own pictures and pictures that the students would contribute to the yearbook. We appreciate the fact that Mr. Arganbright spent nights not ending until 2:00 or 3:00 a. m. perfecting the details of each page of the Mission so we might have a better book. His ability and perseverance for many years helped create a Mission that would be a credit to our school.

Working with the students during classes was never enough; so, besides his extensive work on the Mission, Mr. Arganbright was an advisor to the C. S. F. for nearly 12 years (since 1939) and had served various classes as class advisor. He also drove the school bus and was always willing to cart a group of noisy students off on a field trip of some sort.

Many times we have watched spiders weaving their filmy webs into lacy patterns. Sometimes their webs nearly escape our detection until a bright ray of sunlight turns them into a network of shining silver threads. Through the years, much of Mr. Arganbright's life and accomplishments have woven themselves into our lives unnoticed; but after the storm has washed away the network of his life, still the rays of memory reflect the contributions he left to earthly life.

Faculty

Principal's Message

The administrative problems of a high school can be classified in two types. Those dealing with the school as a whole, and those dealing with the smaller groups within the school.

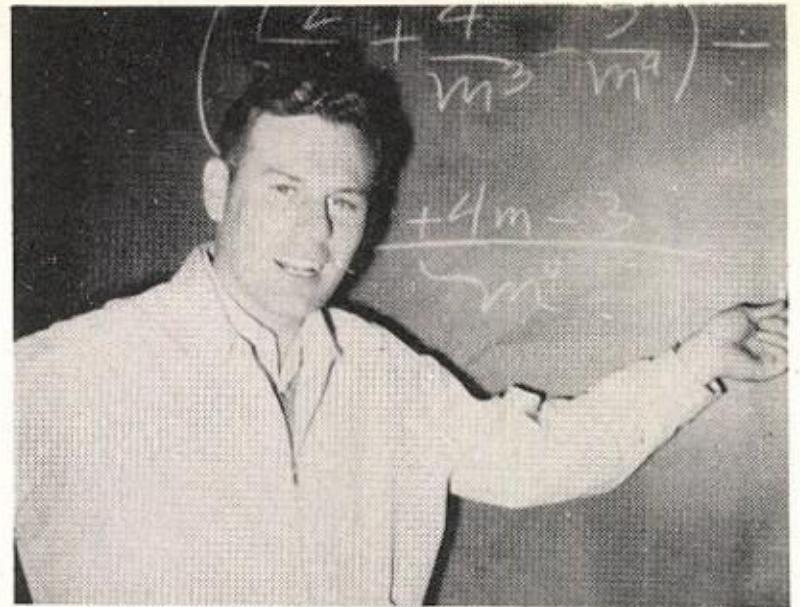

Music in any high school is one of the most important, as it serves the whole school, and creates appreciation within the individual. The musical development within an individual may mean a vocation for some and in others a means of self-expression or a wise use of leisure time.

To a school music is a force that unifies the student body, develops group appreciation, and raises the morale in general.

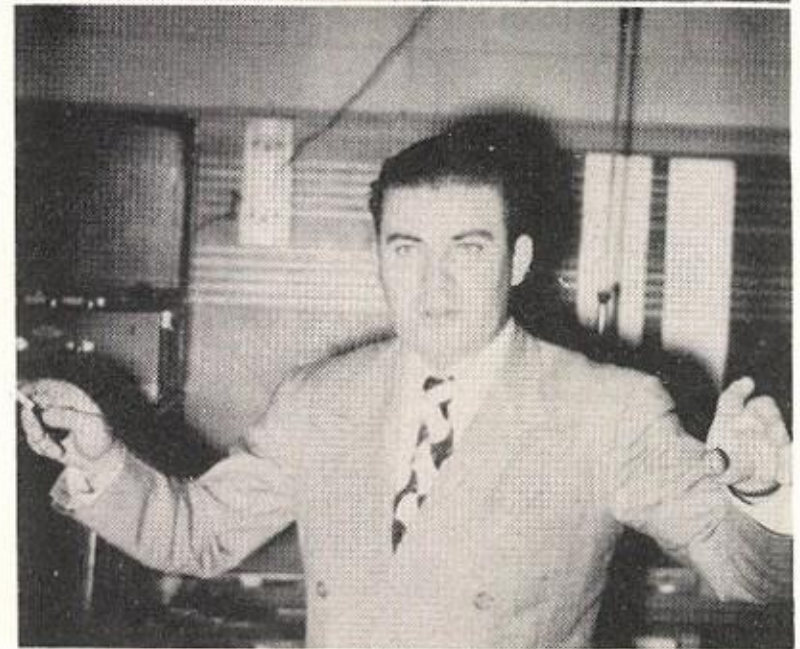

To me, a better theme could not have been chosen. Congratulations to the Editors, the Staff, and their Adviser on your fine book.

Music Notes

Music plays an important part in our lives. It helps develop a full personality, teaches us co-operation, and gives us wholesome competition.

Our school organizations that help us grow musically are: The Band, Orchestra, Glee Club, Octette, Hungary Five, and the Pep Band.

Orchestra members attended the last concert of the Modesto Symphony on March 25. Although they were small in number, they really made a good showing, both at the concerts and play.

A tenor and bass section were added to the Glee Club with the result that much better music and more interest has filled this year with lots of pep, and best of all---good singing!

This year the Hungary Five and the Octette were added to the music department. They have performed for many of the school activities.

We hope that this year, you students will leave our school more musically minded.

Octette: Hansen, Wassink, Nicolaysen, Hargrove, Winters, Borr, Owens, Grasso, Demichelis.

Hungary Five: Toombs, Hargrove, Love, Borr, Luis.

Majorettes and Drum Major: Cunningham, Rogers, Love, St. John, Eastburg.

Class History

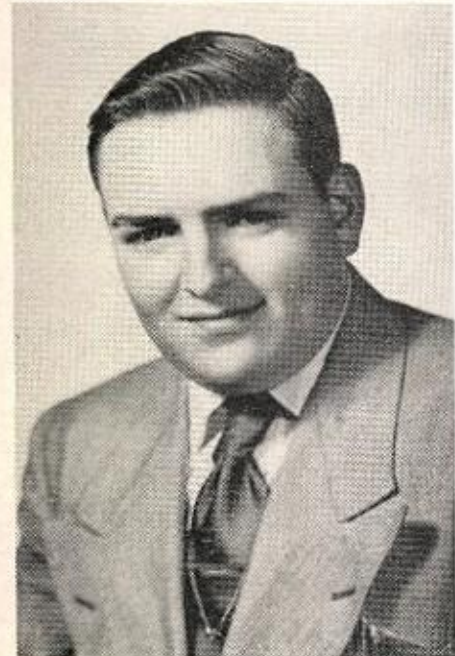

We are the class of '52
And everything we say and do,
Is absolutely right,
We are small, but we are bright,
Oh, we are the class of '52

This is our theme song, and in short, describes the Senior Class. We have always been small, but we still found ways to add a few more grey hairs to Mr. Stouffer's head. By the way, "Thanks," to you, Mr. Stouffer and all your faculty, for being so swell to such a vociferous class.

In our Freshman and Sophomore years we were quite busy with our skating parties and Freshman-Sophomore Brawls. The upperclassmen called us "moneymad", but we had a very special event to finance in our Junior year. The big event was, of course, the Prom. We worked like beavers to give the Seniors an extra-special Prom.

Our Senior year was the most fun for all. We survived a hilarious ditchday in Yosemite, plus the usual antics at the Senior Dinner. Miss Northey and Mr. Azevedo, the class Advisers, deserve a lot of credit for holding the class together and injecting a little common sense into our wild ideas.

So goes our history. But, as, "The moving finger writes, and having writ, moves on," we also have written our part in the history of Ripon High. Now we have finished that writing and we are moving on, but we will always carry the millions of happy memories of our high school days with us. We only hope those who come after us will find the same happiness and success.
